WORKWISE ADJUSTABLE-HEIGHT DESKS & WORKSTATIONS

BENEFITS OF STANDING

American Medical Association Policy H-440.843 states "there are potential risks of prolonged sitting" and encourages "efforts by employers, employees and others to make available alternatives such as standing workstations."

Initial studies suggest standing for part of the day has a range of potential benefits:

- Improved alertness, concentration and productivity
- Increased metabolism
- Improved posture and muscle tone
- Reduced fatigue, eyestrain, aches and pains
- Improved circulation and respiration
- Lower blood pressure and reduced risk of diabetes and heart disease
- Increased comfort, improved morale and reduced absenteeism
- Decreased risk of repetitive stress injuries
